UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Jane Schumacher,

Plaintiff,

v.

Sonny Perdue, Secretary of the Department of Agriculture; and DOES I thru X.

Defendants.

Case No. 2:18-cv-00375-RFB-DJA

Stipulation for Protective Order for Confidential Information

Plaintiff and Defendant, through their undersigned counsel, stipulate and request the entry of a protective order pursuant to 45 C.F.R. § 164.512(e)(1)(i) as stated herein.

Without admission or waiver by any party, the general nature of this action is as follows: This action is an alleged employment discrimination case. Plaintiff alleges that she has received medical treatment as a result of the discrimination.

The discovery to be requested and produced in this matter involve medical records that contain confidential information including, but not limited to, information protected by the Health Insurance Portability and Protection Act (HIPAA) of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-191, 110 Stat. 1936 (1996). Through this protective order, the parties seek to address the handling of such medical records that are likely to contain confidential information protected by the HIPAA. In order to permit the parties to discover and disclose to each other such confidential information as is relevant to this case, and pursuant to Rule 26 of

1 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and federal regulation 45 C.F.R. § 164.512(e)(1)(i),
2 the parties stipulate to the following:

3 1. The United States is authorized to release to other parties in this case records
4 and information otherwise protected by the Privacy Act without obtaining prior written
5 consent of the individual(s) to whom such records pertain, provided that such information
6 is reasonably related to this litigation. Nothing in the protective order is intended to limit
7 or preclude in any way the United States' existing rights to access and review documents
8 containing HIPAA protected information.

9 2. Whenever counsel for any party believes that formal or informal discovery in 10 this case, in whatever form, may reveal or has revealed medical and/or other records that 11 are likely to contain confidential information including, but not limited to, records and 12 information protected by HIPAA, the following procedures shall be followed:

13 a. Counsel for the party producing records containing confidential
14 information shall designate the information as subject to this order by letter and by marking 15 documents containing such information with the notation "CONFIDENTIAL." Upon
16 request from the other party, counsel for the producing party will promptly explain its basis
17 for designating material as being subject to the protective order.

18 b. The right of access to all records designated "CONFIDENTIAL"
19 under this order (unless the parties have agreed otherwise or the Court enters a separate 20 order permitting disclosure) shall be limited to the parties, counsel for the parties, 21 consultants, and expert witnesses, as well as staff in their employ with a need for access in 22 order for each party to prosecute or defend this action including, but not limited to,
23 paralegals, legal assistants, and nurses, and any other persons mutually authorized by all
24 counsel to examine such materials. Any person having access to information subject to this 25 order shall be informed that it is confidential and subject to a protective (non-disclosure)
26 order of the Court. Persons outside the employ of the parties or counsel, such as retained 27 consultants and expert witnesses, shall sign an acknowledgment in accordance with 28 paragraph 2(d) below.

1           c.       Except as provided herein, no person having access to records
2 designated as subject to this order shall reveal to any person not named in paragraph 2(b)
3 any information contained in such material without further order of the Court or 4 stipulation of the parties.

5           d.       Each person outside the employ of a party or counsel, such as 6 retained consultants and expert witnesses, to whom is disclosed records or information
7 designated "CONFIDENTIAL" under this protective order, shall sign and date an 8 acknowledgment, substantially in the form as that attached hereto, affirming that they have
9 read and agree to be bound by the terms of this protective order, and the retaining counsel
10 shall maintain a copy of such acknowledgement in his or her files.

11           e.       When a CONFIDENTIAL record is marked as an exhibit, or 12 otherwise used during questioning at a deposition, counsel shall inform the court reporter
13 of the CONFIDENTIAL designation, and the document and applicable portions of the 14 deposition transcript shall be treated as CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the terms of 15 this order.

16           f.       CONFIDENTIAL records shall be filed, if at all, under seal, subject
17 to and in accordance with, Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172 (9th Cir.
18 2006) and this Court's CM/ECF filing procedures for sealed materials.

19           g.       If a party disagrees with a designation of any records or information
20 as CONFIDENTIAL, such party shall serve a written notice of objection and bases for 21 objection within fifteen (15) days of the production of the designated CONFIDENTIAL
22 records or information. The parties shall then have fifteen (15) days to confer in good faith
23 efforts to resolve the dispute, and no motion concerning same shall be filed with the Court
24 during this period of time to confer. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute, the 25 party asserting the CONFIDENTIAL designation shall file an appropriate motion with the 26 Court within fifteen (15) days after the parties' failure to resolve the dispute. The failure to 27 timely serve a written objection and bases, as set forth herein, shall constitute a waiver of 28 the objection. The failure to timely file an appropriate motion with the Court, as set forth herein, shall constitute a waiver of the designation. Until such time as any designation dispute is resolved by the parties or adjudicated by the Court, the parties shall treat designated records or information as CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the terms of this order.

h. Within forty-five (45) days of the conclusion of all trial and any appellate proceedings in this case, counsel for the receiving party shall either return to counsel for the producing party all documents and copies of documents designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" under this order or certify that such documents and copies have been destroyed.

i. This order is without prejudice to the rights of any party to introduce, or object to the introduction, into evidence at trial or during summary judgment proceedings any materials that are subject to this order.

j. This order is without prejudice to the rights of any party to make any objections to discovery requests as permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, statute or other authority.

Respectfully submitted this 4th day of November, 2019.
